

John Young Barn

You'll find this handsome barn at 2365 East Main Canyon in Wallsburg. It was built by Mr. John Young in Wallsburg the 1970s with the help of Rolo Hendrickson. Mr. Young was born in Wallsburg, and is no longer alive. His wife Florence is the owner of the barn.

The barn is built of red pine with redwood siding, which was very unusual. The main purposes of the barn was for hay storage, and for a place to milk cows, which was done in the shed part of the barn. The surroundings of this structure, as you can see in the picture are beautiful.

Information for this article came from Ben Young and his mother, Florence.

The barn pictures will be a part of The Smithsonian Institution Exhibit called "Barn Again", which will be in Heber City at the North School - opening on May 8 and continuing through June 20.

on April 11.

An Open House will be held in their honor at Deer Creek Island Resort, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. All friends and family are invited.
